Narberth Club Wins League Championship Fourth Straight Year

Gladwyne Bows in Third Game, 8-3, After Losing First Two

MASTERS IS SERIES STAR

For the fourth straight year the Narberth Baseball Club is champion of the Main Line. The title came into the possession of Manager Gene Davis and his diamond stars Saturday afternoon when Narberth defeated Gladwyne, 8-3, the third victory in three games in the final playoffs.

Due to able hurling by Walt Masters and heavy bludgeoning by the Davismen, the victory was an anticlimax to two preceding thrillers won by one-run margins.

The four-year record is a new league mark for Narberth. Masters also established something or other to shoot at by being officially listed as the series' only winning pitcher. He went the distance in the first and third games and relieved Al Herrmann in the second after an umpire ejected Al from the game.

Walt allowed nine hits Saturday, walked one and struck out seven. He pitched shutout ball for the first six innings.

The Davismen collected a total of 13 hits off four Gladwyne moundsmen: Wagner, McSorley, Severn and Schelle. With their pinch hitters the KeyNels used a total of sixteen men trying to stem off the defeat.

Every man on the Narberth team got one or more hits except Tanny Ralston and he scored after getting on base on one of Gladwyne's three errors. Claude Bailey led the barrage with three bingles, while a pair of safeties each were registered by Carlsten, Walker and Ogden.

In both 1936 and 1935 Narberth defeated Brookline in the series, while the Berwyn team bowed to the Davismen in 1934.

Juniors Start Drive for New Members

Directions Given for Joining: First Meeting Will be October 14

In anticipation of a full season the Junior Section of the Woman's Community Club has started its early fall "round-up" of prospective members. If you are now a member, submit the name of a friend. If you are a stranger and within the age limit (35 or less) the Juniors would be very glad if you would call the membership chairman, Mrs. John H. Jefferies, Jr. (Narberth 2432), and she will call on you.

The first regular meeting is scheduled for Thursday, October 14. The Executive Board will meet the previous Monday at the home of the president, Mrs. Spencer V. Smith, 210 Essex avenue.

Mrs. Ellsworth Clarke, chairman of the Book Club Section, plans an active year with many speakers of interest to booklovers. And Mrs. Fred Gray, head of the Child Study Group, promises an interesting series of meetings.

All the dances this year are to be held at the Cynwyd Club. The first one will be the end of this month (October). Watch for the date!

Casual Member Bad Influence in Club

State Federation President Tells Women Non-Worker is "Enemy"

Valuable suggestions whereby Federated club members can make their clubs a help in the community were given to about 800 women attending the Southeastern District of the State Federation of Pennsylvania Women held at Collegeville last Thursday.

Mrs. R. C. Heath, past president of the Women's Community Club, of Narberth, felt that the advice of Mrs. John M. Phillips, President of the State Federation of Pennsylvania Women, was most helpful. "The worst enemy of a club is a casual member," said Mrs. Phillips. She urged that each member know her club's aims and her community and its needs, and that she examine herself, see what she is best fitted for, then go to work.

Mrs. Joseph Gurbarg, chairman of Literature and International Relations, represented the Narberth Club at the conference on Libraries. At that meeting Mrs. Berch C. Pollock, of Drexel Hill, urged clubs with no libraries in their communities to collect money and books to start them. The Narberth club answered that need by establishing the Narberth Public Library in the years 1920 to 1922, under the presidency of Mrs. E. C. Batchelor.

Mrs. J. Bertram Hervey, conducting the conference on Art, announced that Art week would be the first week in November this year and asked that work of local artists be exhibited in store windows as last year. Mrs. E. C. Batchelor and Mrs. J. S. Harries were club members who had paintings on exhibit in Narberth last year.

Boro Fire Company Directors Will Elect Officers Monday

Also on the board ex-officio are Charles V. Noel, fire chief; Mrs. Eberhardt Mueller, representing the Mothers' Auxiliary; and a representative from Borough Council, a post held by Mr. Durbin, who is now an elected member.

Orchestra Announces Officers

The Lower Merion High School orchestra announces the appointment of officers for the current year:

Concert Masters, David Alburger and Muriel Geckler; Manager, Duino Listino; Librarian, Shirley Vincent; Secretary, Milly Wynne.

The membership of the orchestra totals sixty-five players. Public concerts will be held in December and May, and assembly programs in various suburban schools.

Walter P. Miesen Chosen Narberth Legion Commander

Contractor and Sportsman Heads New Officers of Speakman Post

INSTALLATION OCT. 25

Walter P. Miesen, Narberth contractor, is the new commander of the Harold D. Speakman Post, American Legion.

He was elected Monday night at the post's room in the Narberth Community Building, together with John P. Graff as first vice commander; Walter R. O'Sullivan, second vice commander; John A. Mowrer, Jr., finance officer; the Rev. Robert E. Keighton, chaplain, and Charles F. Girvin, sergeant-at-arms.

Chosen as members of the Executive Committee were Francis S. Challenger, Alan T. Kirk, Dr. Arthur J. Denman, Vincent F. Cunningham and James T. Paul.

The new commander, who succeeds Frank J. Dwyer, is an active member of the Lower Merion Rod and Gun Club. He enlisted from Philadelphia, served in the Quartermaster Corps during the war, and was one of the first members of the Narberth post.

These new officers will be installed at the October 25 meeting by Ninth District Commander Raymond L. Hemmerley, of Glenside, and Deputy District Commander John Baird, of Bryn Mawr.

Commander Dwyer appointed William H. Durbin as chairman of the Armistice Day banquet at which the speaker will be Congressman J. William Ditter. On the committee with Mr. Durbin are Henry A. Frye, Harvey Cook and Francis S. Challenger.

Mr. Frye was named to head a committee to take a poll of members to decide upon a new monthly meeting date for the post.

Mr. Challenger made a brief report on the State Convention at York which he attended as post delegate.

Inspection of Rockland Ave. Bridge Scheduled This Friday

An inspection of the work on the Rockland avenue bridge is scheduled to be made this Friday morning by the Pennsylvania Public Utility Commission.

Parties concerned with the improvement, which include the Pennsylvania Railroad, Lower Merion township and the borough of Narberth, will be represented.

If approval is given, payment for shares in the project will be ordered by the Commission.

The work consisted of widening the approaches and building a retaining wall, done jointly by the township and borough, and building a footway and relocating overhead wires by the railroad company.

Registration for Narberth and Lower Merion Oct. 1-2

Narberth residents will have a further opportunity to register as voters on Friday and Saturday, October 1 and 2, from 10 A. M. to 3 P. M. and from 7 P. M. to 10 P. M., at the Forrest avenue firehouse.

As previously announced, Lower Merion citizens may register at the township building, Ardmore, on the same dates.

Baseball Team Greatest Town Asset Club President Tells Business Men

What the baseball team means to Narberth, particularly to its business men, was described by Ray Cabrey, president of the Narberth Baseball Club, in a talk before the Narberth Business Council Tuesday night.

The merchants, meeting in the Arcadia Restaurant, decided not to hold a Mardi Gras on Halloween night, but to intensify their efforts on a Christmas lighting program.

Mr. Cabrey said the baseball club was the oldest Narberth institution, having been formed in 1881 when the borough's population was 580.

Since 1910, when the club became a member of the Main Line League, Narberth has won fifteen pennants in twenty-seven years. The team plays before 15,000 people annually, he said, and is the greatest factor in drawing

Women's Community Club Program To Cover Wide Field During Year

The year's program for the Women's Community Club of Narberth, announced by the Program chairman, Mrs. E. J. Pollock, covers a wide field of interest. History, Fashion, Craftsmanship, International Relations, Music, Religion, Law, Social Relations, Hobbies, Science, Literature and Nature are among the subjects which will be touched upon by talented speakers at the general meetings.

The address on "The Constitution," by Dr. Calvin O. Althouse, will feature the first club meeting, next Tuesday, at two o'clock, in the Girl Scout wing of the Community Building. This meeting will be a Colonial tea in honor of the 150th anniversary of the signing of the constitution and the hostesses will be the Hospitality Committee, Mrs. R. C. Heath, chairman. Members of the Fellowship Committee, in Colonial costume, will greet the guests.

The second meeting, an open one, will include luncheon at Green Hill Farms, at 12.30, October 19, followed by a fashion show, "Dawn to Dusk."

Miss E. Alberta Brenner, of New York, brings to the club on November 2 "The Romance of Silver."

Men's Night, so popular last year, will be repeated November 16, at 8.30 P. M., in the Community Building, with popular sportsmen as speakers. The Keystone Quartet will sing.

Discussions on International Relations will be presented November 30 by Miss Besse Howard, director of the Pennsylvania Branch of the League of Nations Association.

"This Way to Christmas," by Miss Ruth Rupprecht, accompanied by Mrs. Van Valkenburg, will feature the December 14 meeting. Miss Rupprecht describes the people of various nationalities thronging to Palestine for Christmas and sings their native religious songs.

John Flynn, of Narberth, Assistant District Attorney, will speak January 4 on "The District Attorney's Office."

Miss Sophia Bliven, popular speaker at State and County Federation meetings, will speak January 18 on "Leadership."

There will be a covered dish luncheon, February 1, and a Hobby Show, with Mrs. C. A. Farmer as chairman. Dr. Walter Obold, Professor of Biological Sciences at Drexel Institute, will speak on "Pure Food Laws, State and National."

Mrs. George Emerson Barnes, well-known for her lecture series on new books each year at the Overbrook Presbyterian Church, will give a book review March 1.

Merion Boy Killed When Struck by Narberth Car

Harry McCloud, six-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Harry A. McCloud, of Upland road, Merion, died from injuries received last Thursday when, near his home, he ran in front of the automobile operated by William Farmer, seventeen, of Woodbine avenue, Narberth. Funeral services were held Monday.

With Farmer at the time was William Cliphsham, of Brookhurst avenue, Narberth. They said the boy ran in front of the car while playing "tag."

attention to the community. The games, according to Mr. Cabrey, are of particular benefit to the merchants as they kept residents at home over the week-ends.

He announced that the annual Players' Banquet would be held October 18.

Merchants present pledged their cooperation to the baseball club in its effort to reduce a season's deficit of $300 and several present pledged sums at the meeting to help sponsor a "History of the Main Line League" in which the team is financially interested.

Roy Gowland, president, appointed as a Christmas Lighting Committee: Marios Chios, George Albert, J. J. Whiteside and himself.

MRS. E. W. HEYMANN

Employers Trust Too Much, Rotarians Hear

Bonding Company Official Cites Need for Insurance Against Weakness

America's losses from business peculations exceed those from fire, but business men carry little protection against the weaknesses of employees. This was the statement of Dodd Bryan, official of a Philadelphia bonding company, speaking Tuesday at the weekly meeting of the Bala-Cynwyd-Narberth Rotary Club.

Mr. Bryan, who spoke as the guest of Charles L. Campbell, Jr., gave a thorough and informative outline of the fidelity and surety bonding field. "No matter how old and trusted an employee may be," he said, "fidelity bonds are needed in larger businesses."

His talk was liberally illustrated with actual cases of defalcation and failure, many of them familiar to local residents. He discussed fidelity, contract and surety bonds in detail and gave examples of the effect of deposit bonds during the wave of bank closings.

President Paul Swain Havens, of Wilson College, Chambersburg, has announced the award of the Anna F. Welles scholarship to Helen Ruth Chubb, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Chubb, Essex avenue, Narberth, "for excellence in academic work during the year 1936-37."

Miss Chubb is a member of the Sophomore class at Wilson. She is one of nine girls to whom scholarships, endowed by friends and alumnae of the college, have been given for the coming year in recognition of their outstanding scholastic records.

There is no admission fee for this lecture and the public is invited.

Merchants' Clinic Discontinued

The proposed Retail Merchants' Clinic, which was scheduled to start October 4, has been discontinued, according to Ralph S. Dunne, of the sponsoring committee. Lack of membership pledges for the planned series of five meetings was given as the reason.

Principal Advises Parents About Care of School Children

W. J. Drennan and W. M. Wentz Discuss "Approach" From Two Angles

MANY FATHERS THERE

A capacity audience attended the first meeting of the Parent-Teacher Association at the Narberth Public School, Monday evening, including a large number of fathers of the students.

Walton M. Wentz, on the parents' side in the debate "The Approach To School," stated that he believed in home work for the students, as it was discipline for the child's mind and what he or she did at home would then be perfected in the school. He also stressed the amount of time needed for this work.

W. J. Drennan, school principal, from the standpoint of the school, declared that the time for home work varies according to the grade of the child, and that it was almost impossible to exactly regulate so much work. About one hour each evening should be enough for the child below the sixth grade; for those in the higher grades it should be between an hour and a half and two hours. He also stressed the safety problem in the school; advised the parents to select the radio programs for their children as well as the movies. They should also see that the child is well fed before coming to school and that time be given for him to eat his food. He said that children of an early age should be taught to mingle with their companions and then kindergarten will not be so difficult for them.

The Rev. Cletus A. Sentf, pastor of the Holy Trinity Lutheran Church, gave the invocation, followed by the Salute to the Flag by Boy Scout Bill Kairer. Mrs. Edmund Alden Whiting, the president, introduced the new officers and chairmen for the coming year. Mrs. W. P. Dunnington, chairman of the Study Group, announced that the first meeting of the season of this group would be held Wednesday, October 13, at 10.30 A. M., in the Girl Scout Wing of the Community Building. The speaker will be Dr. Earle G. Bond, of the Pennsylvania Mental Institute.

Mrs. W. J. Drennan, leader of the Mother's Chorus, asked for members for the chorus. She sang two negro spirituals, "Deep River" and "Swing Low Sweet Chariot."

Friday, October 1, 1937

Lower Merion's latest aggregation of football players lived up to expectations last Friday at Penn Charter. The team's victory was not spectacular, but throughout the game the local squad had control of all departments and seemed satisfied to ease along to a two-touchdown victory. The score, 14 to 0, represented two well-earned touchdowns and a safety.

The affair was a dyed-in-the-wool first game of the season. The coaches tried out various aspirants for the different places on the team and many of the boys showed up well.

Lower Merion scored midway in the first half when they got tired of trying to rush the ball and went into the air to place the oval on Penn Charter's twenty-yard line. Captain Joe Stinger, a lad who will make an excellent leader, dashed off tackle for the remaining distance for a touchdown. The safety followed a few minutes later when Joe Dimidio, substitute sophomore end, blocked a kick which traveled over the end line for the two points.

The last score came in the third period when Miller hurled a beautiful thirty-yard pass to Martindale, another sub end who was downed on the four-yard line. Ole Cap'n Stinger had the necessary punch to score again.

Penn Charter offered some stiff opposition for the locals, but did not have a co-ordinated offense sufficient to dent the fine line that Coach Adam has built.

The work of sophomores Fred Dunlap at center and Joe Dimidio at end were very pleasing. The chances are good that five or six of the sophomore members of the team will see plenty of action this year.

Tomorrow Easton High School brings a heavy, experienced eleven to Pennypacker Field for their annual game with the Maroon. The Easton coaches know their business and will have another fine team this season. They scouted the Penn Charter game last week and went home with six pages of information about the local team's strengths and weaknesses. A few of their notes disclosed that Lower Merion's off-tackle play was weak this year, particularly with Miller carrying the ball; that we had a very weak defense against forward passing and that our players on the right side of the line were particularly slow in going down under kicks. All of this is interesting, of course, but the thing they overlooked is that Coach Adam also had the same notes on his mental slate and has been working on those weaknesses the past few days.

Regardless of strengths or weaknesses of either team, the game tomorrow is sure to be one of the most interesting and fiercely contested battles of the current season. The up-State eleven defeated Wilson High School last Saturday 20 to 0, showing they have the idea. Easton will be one of the most difficult teams on the schedule to defeat.

P. S. I pick Lower Merion, but by a narrow margin.

The junior high team will open at Coatesville today. In spite of Coach Mattis' groans and worries, I believe that the locals will win the opener.

I can't resist expressing the hope that Ole Miss jumps over Temple tonight. Buster Kinnard and his gang played the hardest schedule of any major eleven in the country last year, traveling over 11,000 miles to play twelve games. Temple defeated them in the last two minutes of play on a sixty-yard forward heave that spurted off the hands of Ray Hapes, Mississippi's safety man.

6 Basketball Teams in Main Line Circuit

Narberth and Chester Only Holdovers From Last Season

Six teams will comprise the Main Line Basketball League this season. They are Jay Neill's Narberth team and Chester, only holdovers from last year's "A" circuit aggregation; Herb Good's Brookline five, Al Mandes' Wayne Raiders, Bob Raulston's Bryn Mawr Presbyterians, and Jimmy Patton's Artisans, champions of last year's "B" division.

The Narberth team will include Neill's "A's" and Eck Burgess' "B's" also merged with Jack Schultz, manager of last season's Rosemont club.

Assisting Manager Good of the Brookline Country Club team will be Ray Stanley, member of the Penn Varsity Five and a star on Lower Merion High's only State championship team. Stanley lives at 127 Woodside avenue, Narberth.

Charles E. Harnden, Penn Valley, has been re-elected president and other officers are Hal Keating, Ardmore, first vice president; William L. Briggs, Chester, second vice president; Harry Hollar, Narberth, secretary and treasurer.

The season will open November 15. Doubleheaders will be played at the Brookline Country Club each Monday.

Three badminton courts have been installed in the country club ballroom and will be open to the public next week-end.

Lucille Stoddard Will Introduce "The Big Apple"

With the opening of Miss Lucille Stoddard's School of Dancing October 1, "The Big Apple" will make its first official appearance on the Main Line.

This dance, which has taken the country by storm, will be given in Miss Stoddard's advanced instruction classes. Although she considers it a novelty, the well-known dancing instructor believes that it should be learned in order to fully enjoy an evening of modern dancing.

The fox-trot, waltz, rhumba and tango will again be taught this year as a basis for other dancing.

In announcing her schedule, Miss Stoddard emphasized the wholesome, healthful and cultural value of dancing. "It plays an important part in social life," she declared. "More social and business contacts are made through dancing than any other form of social life."

She stated that it is especially important for boys between the ages of 10 and 17 to take up dancing if they do not wish to lose an important part of their fun in life.

Applications for invitations to the classes may be made to Miss Stoddard at Green Hill Farms, Ardmore 3600.

Miss Stoddard's classes, which have made such rapid growth, will again be held at the Woman's Club of Bala-Cynwyd and at the Merion Tribute House.

WELL IF YOU'D PUT

YOU WOULDN'T GET IN THIS MESS!

You just can't fool Mrs. Fussbudget! Here's her Ferdie covered with dirt and grime after wrestling with the old heating system. Does she sympathize? Not much. But she does advise him to put in gas house heat. And all the time, he's worried about the cost. Actually, it's cheaper than he... and probably you... think. Automatic controls keep down the cost!

Let us make a careful survey and estimate what it will cost you to heat your home. Choice of Janitrol, Bryant or Welsbach Conversion Burners—$195 cash for each installed. Slightly higher on budget plan—three years to pay. Ask us about our convenient monthly budget plan on operating a heater... and our low combination gas rate!

Display of Model Homes

An interesting display of model homes can be seen at the Narberth School's museum. Miss Gasner, who is in charge, has been fortunate in obtaining a number of these model homes from the WPA Educational Project. There are models of an early cave dwelling, a very modern home, a few colonial homes, Indian tents, Renaissance castles, Greek and Roman homes, a Mexican house, a Swiss home and many others. They are made of Plaster of Paris.

BETTY HOLLAR

Installation of the first school patrol took place September 10 with Mr. Drennen and Mr. Wetherill as sponsors. The patrol was nominated and elected by the Seventh and Eighth grades. The officers are: President, Victor Heath; secretary, Barbara Smedley; sergeant-at-arms, Jim Pruitt. Other members are Eleanor Haywood, Catherine Gable, Robert Wells, Harry Middleton, Robert Ezickson, Betty Hollar, Allen Doty, Peggy Eashy, Suzanne Austin and Russell Shinn. After receiving pins they repeated, with the student body, the school creed.

On September 17, Mr. Harkness sponsored a program in honor of the 150th anniversary of the signing of the Constitution. The devotions were led by Edna Andrew, followed by Peggy Aul, reading the President's proclamation. Robert Wells read some rules regarding the pledge to the flag. After reading them the students saluted the flag accordingly. Elaine Starr read the Americans' Creed, after which there was a song. Eleanor Haywood read an account of the Constitution and its results, which concluded the program for the day.

September 24 brought us a program on safety. George Woodrow led the devotions. Mr. Swift, of the American Automobile Club, showed us a film on safety. While Mr. Swift was changing reels, Mr. Love, who was with him, conducted a Vox Pop. He called all of the members of the safety patrol upon the stage. Bob Ezickson and Peggy Eashy were called to help in the broadcast. Bob was the radio announcer and Peggy was the timekeeper. After Bob announced the station and the program Mr. Love began immediately to Vox Pop the patrol. He found that Bob Hayward was the captain, and that Edward Millar was the lieutenant. He also was told that Neil Moxen, George Woodrow, Jack Young and Bill Kairer were other safety patrol members. He questioned them on their duties and found that they knew what was expected of them. After timing five minutes Peggy motioned to cut, then we saw the rest of the film.
